CASTROL RACEWAY EVENT PHOTO & VIDEO GUIDELINES

Castrol Raceway has exclusive event photo and video agreements with Vendors to exclusively sell photos to Racers and fans. No other person may sell or give-away photos and/or videos; including printed, online or social media images.

Preference is given to photographers with “professional grade” equipment and significant experience shooting motorsports, and photographers associated with credentialed media.

Internet sites will only be considered if they cover motorsports on a regular basis and are consistently updated with news and features, or are local or tourism-based sites for area in which the event is hosted. Websites must be free from profanity and offensive language.

High resolution images may be printed or posted online only if they are included with comprehensive editorial. Any other website or social media images posted online may not exceed 800 pixels in size.

Castrol Raceway will request specific event images which must be provided in high resolution digital form no later than 5 days following event. We may request at anytime a copy of any print material that contains your event photography. Provided images should not be watermarked, and proper photo credit will be given if used.

The issue of restricted area wristbands and/or vest is not transferable and must be work in plain view at all times. Your photo credentials badge is not transferable; you may not give or loan your photo credentials badge to another person for any reason.

The official release and waiver of liability must be signed to receive a restricted photo/video access.

Each Venue (Drag, Road Course, and Oval) has specific approved Photo/video designated areas; please see Castrol Raceway Management for specific parameters. Photographers are not permitted in the “hot” Zones or on the racing surface at ANY time.

All Photographers MUST act professionally at all times, refrain from interfering with competition and follow all instructions given by event staff or run the risk of being removed from the Venue

Race cars, Crew, and Castrol Raceway Staff and Management have the right of way at all times.

If you have been issued a Castrol Raceway Event photo credentials, you have a limited, nonexclusive, opportunity to take and use photographs of the Event as long as such use does not imply an endorsement or sponsorship relationship between a third party and Castrol Raceway, Race participants, and/or Castrol Raceway’s partners and supporters.

Credentials and permission to take photos and video and will be granted on a case-by-case basis. Requests for permission must include sufficient information to evaluate the request.

Castrol Raceway reserves the right to grant or take away photography and/or video access at any event for any reason at any time. Failure to follow these rules can and will result in immediate loss of restricted access credentials.
